What We Are Learning!

It was so wonderful to see all the smiling faces as we came back from Christmas Break. The littles were so excited to be back with their friends. We talked about our favorite Christmas memories and wrote in our journals. We also talked about the New Year and painted with watercolors, doobers, and even forks! We reviewed the letters we have practiced so far: L, F, E, H, T, I, U, C, O, Q, G, J, and did many alphabet centers including iPads, puzzles, magnetic letters, and easels with dry erase and chalk. We also practiced tracing and cutting skills. In Religion we talked about Epiphany, the Wise Men, and Baptism. Fr. Robert brought in the gifts of Gold, Frankincense, and Myrrh for us to see. Our virtue for 3rd quarter is kindness.

Notes:

Catholic Schools Week is January 30-February 3. It will be a fun and exciting week for our school. We will have different dress up days throughout the week and lots of extra activities. Monday will be Pajama Day. Tuesday will be Mismatched Day. Wednesday will be Western Day. Thursday will be Blue and Gold Day. Friday will be Decade Day. More information to follow.

We have been busy assessing the littles. We are proud of their progress so far this year. We will be sending home progress reports for 2nd quarter next week.

Have a great weekend!
