Save the Phonics Readers

Remember to keep the weekly phonics readers in a special place to pull out during spring & summer break! You don't want your little reader to backslide. These books are perfect for maintaining skills while s/he is away from routine classroom reinforcement. By practicing at home, your child can pick up right where the class is (Or jump ahead!) upon our return.

Here's What We're Working On

Religion: Shamrocks remind us of 3 Persons in one God
4th Quarter Virtue: Patience

Phonics Focus Skill: Continue Blending & reading CVC words

Phonics Focus Sound /sh/ at beginning of word

Coordinating story & comprehension questions: Shad in the Shed

High Frequency Words: she

Math: Continue Addition: putting together groups

Mental Math-- Addends of 5 & 10 We are working on automaticity / knowing answer in a snap BUT, for a bit longer, Kinders can use manipulatives if needed.

Fine Motor: Continue formation of letters, 1st & Last Name

Journal Writing: Continue sentences using spacing and ending punctuation
