

MRS. WHITNEY'S PRESCHOOL NEWS

WHAT'S HAPPENING IN PS!

Wow. There aren't many words to describe how I'm feeling about the end of this school year. It is so bittersweet. I have watched your child learn, grow, blossom, mature and prepare to move on to Pre-K - which has been absolutely beautiful - but I am not ready to let a single one of them go. They however, are prepared. They're ready to go and continue to blossom into the perfect babies that they are. I genuinely hope that they continue to be who THEY are. I am so thankful that I was the one that was able to be their very first teacher. That is something that is so special to me and I will cherish forever. I will cherish them forever.

Thank you to all of you amazing mamas. Taking time out of your day, especially on busy, hectic mornings - is not an easy task. Your little had been looking so forward to spending that time with you and you made it such a special morning. I really hope you enjoyed yourself! Thank you for your continued support throughout the year (and the dads, too!) I really hope that you enjoyed your little's first experience at SMS and I was able to give your babies all of the love and guidance that they so deserve. If there is anything that you would like to have been done differently, please reach out and let me know. I am learning and growing as well and would always love to hear any feedback regarding your little and our classroom!

Next week is going to be a fun one. We have all of our "learning" complete and I will begin wrapping up assessing. If your little does not normally come on Mondays, please have them join us next Monday. I'd love all of them to be together as long as possible! This class really has a special bond.

Tuesday we will be celebrating Lyla's summer birthday!

Wednesday we will be walking to 2 Farmers with our Pre-K friends to get ice cream! We will leave around 10:15 and be back right around 11. The school is taking care of the cost. :)

Thursday we will be celebrating our last day of school with our Pre-K friends. Please let me know if there will be a grown up attending with your little. Remember to send in a towel for this last day but NO SWIM SUITS! Normal clothes, please!

We will be dismissing at 12:00 that day and your little can be picked up at the preschool door if your little won't have a grown up.

Right at 12pm dismissal your little can grab a Sno Cone on the way out (THANKS STUDENT COUNCIL!) to celebrate SUMMER!
