WHAT'S HAPPENING IN PS!

Another fantastic week in the classroom!

This week we continued our unit on feelings/emotions.

Every quarter we have a virtue that we are working on and this quarter we are working on kindness to coincide with our feeling study. They are doing fantastic in telling me ways they can show kindness. :)

We worked hard on learning the letter 'T' this week. We dotted, traced, colored, play'doh'd, danced, sang and used our magnet to master it. (They LOVE using the magnet to pull the spots off after completing their letter!) Next week we will move on to letter 'U'! Next week we will also begin our MARCH BOOK MADNESS. We will have a book bracket and they will choose an ultimate winner! Think March Madness Basketball style. This is such a fun thing for them and they are so excited to see what book is the ultimate winner! This goes along with "Read Across America" week and Dr Seuss' birthday this

Saturday. Next week we will have 2 fun days for

Dr. Seuss MONDAY: HAT DAY - TUESDAY - SILLY SOCK DAY

We will also have a guest presenter next Wednesday for Dental Health Month (which is February) - Ava's mama, Karmen!

I will NOT be sending home a snack calendar for the month of March. You guys have been so gracious and we are overflowing with snacks! I want to get some of them used before Spring Break comes along. :)

For my March birthdays - I will be reaching out to talk about sending in Birthday treats for their snack! :)

Next week we will be finishing up our City Lights class project for the auction! On top of the amazing donations we receive for the event - each class makes a project for the event to be auctioned off. The PS class craft is ADORABLE. You can put your bid in on March 9th at CITY LIGHTS! Tickets are available for the event in the office - if you need some, let me know and I can get them to you! This event is the largest fundraiser for SMS and it is SO MUCH FUN. Live Music, Delicious catered food, Live, Silent & Dessert auction. This years theme is FIESTA - but don't fret - you don't have to dress up if you don't want to! Please help us celebrate our school and raise money for our classrooms!
