What We Are Learning!

Wow! We made it through our first full week of Pre-K! The littles are beginning to learn our routine, prayers, and songs. We read and talked about all the many ways we are alike and different and enjoyed playing games about "Who Am I?" and "Whose Nose?". We stamped their fingerprints and looked at them through magnifying glasses. We made an eye color graph and found we have a lot of blue eyed cuties! They painted their names with Q-tips and even wrote in shaving cream! We got to meet our 8th grade buddy class and did a journal page about "Getting to Know Me". Both the littles and the big buddies enjoyed our time. We try to get together on a weekly basis. We also made some cute paper doll look a likes. We loved our first music class with Miss Beck.

Notes:

We started the first phase of our Handwriting Without Tears Program (HWT) by introducing the wood pieces and building and singing about Mat Man. We will be making our own Mat Man soon and next month we will start practicing a letter of the alphabet each week.

We will welcome 2 new students into our Pre-K family on Monday! We will now have 15 students on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday. We will have 9 on Monday and Friday.

Have a GREAT weekend!
