Spiral Learning

The spiral learning approach to teaching begins with the basics, progressing to deeper understanding. There is a continual emphasis on REVIEW FOR MASTERY, reinforcing specific concepts, then advancing to higher complexity. Concepts are reintroduced and applied in new ways. So each time a child revisits the material, what they've learned is reinforced. This means children have multiple opportunities to master what they've learned.

Here's What We're Working On

Religion: 2nd Quarter Virtue Gratitude
Praying the Rosary

Phonics Focus Sound: hard c as in cat

For BTT bring an item which has /c/ sound in beginning

Focus Word: can

Decodable Reader: Tom Cat

Math 2nd Quarter Skills Unit 5 Measurement

Writing: Using sight words to compose sentences

Continue labeling using sounds heard

This will be phonetic spelling & will NOT expected to be accurate spelling at this point ☺

Be The Teacher Items

Life is crazy busy & you are doing a great job of keeping up! If you don't already, try posting this newsletter & the monthly menu on your fridge. When you read the focus sound, encourage your Kinder to find an item & put it in his/her backpack so it'll be there on the assigned day. Also...any days you are not sure if SMS is in session? Check the lunch menu. If food is listed we are in school. The only time this won't be accurate would be an emergency day, snow day, etc. & you'll get an alert.
