WHAT'S HAPPENING IN PS!

What a fun week in Preschool!

This week we worked on the letter 'I'

We colored, dotted, traced, colored letter I words, danced and sang our way to mastering it! Next week we will move on to letter 'J'. We also worked so hard on writing our names! We will continue this every week at center time. They are doing a fantastic job academically! Friday is mid-term and end of quarter assessing will begin in a few weeks before Christmas break!

Speaking of Christmas - we are beginning to practice our Christmas Program songs!! We will be doing songs with our Pre-K friends. More information regarding the Christmas program is in your littles folder. Even more information will be sent home a few days before the program. It's always a fantastic program put on by our Music teacher, Miss Beck!

Our classroom Christmas party will be:

Thursday, December 19th from 9:00-10:30(ish)

A letter about this will be coming home at the beginning of December.

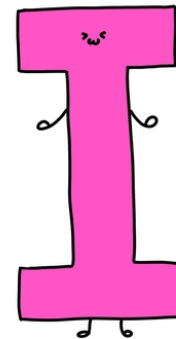

We were visited by Father Robert this week for Religion. He prayed with us and talked to us about the upcoming Thanksgiving holiday. They did a great job telling him things that they have to be thankful for. We have also started doing our VBRD circles at morning meeting. We will do one of these (in an actual circle on the floor, all together) once a week. This week we discussed things that we are thankful for. During these circles we sit quietly and they are only allowed to talk if it's their turn. They all get a chance to speak and it's a great way of practicing listening and patience!

We are all thankful for so many fantastic things! ♥

The rain rained out our recess time on our playground so we took advantage of the warm-ish weather and went for a walk to look at the trees to see how much they've changed! Our tree study will go through the Christmas season! We also made a pit stop on the back parking lot and played an intense game of Duck, Duck, Goose!

December 13th our Student Council will be holding our annual Christmas Movie night. This year they are playing The Polar Express. Wear your pjs, bring your blankets, chairs and Christmas spirit at 6pm for the movie in the gym! Student council will be selling snacks and drinks!
