What We Are Learning!

We worked on the letter P with our HWT Program using Play-Doh, iPads, chalk boards, and paint dobbers. We spent the week learning about penguins and polar bears, and other arctic animals through books, songs, and videos. We did arctic patterns, alphabet and number dot to dot, polar shapes coloring, and Q-tip painting. We used our fine motor skills to make a cute penguin craft and made puffy paint for our polar bears. We learned about ice by touching, tasting, and observing it melt in different stages. We even painted with ice! We also did a science experiment to see how penguins stay dry and rotated through several different math centers. We read the book The Mitten and wrote in our journals about what could fit in our own mitten. In Religion we talked about sharing good news.
