News & Notes

Hello! You will be happy to know that we have survived IOWA testing. It was a long couple of days, but your kiddos kept going and powered through. I am so proud of their perseverance and behavior! Thank you to everyone who said prayers and provided snacks and drinks. It is greatly appreciated!

October is approaching rapidly. Please refer to the "Mark Your Calendar" section for all events. If you have not received information on an event, you should receive it soon and watch Facebook for updates. Please feel free to contact me whenever needed.
