What We Are Learning

We spent the week talking about our feelings. The littles enjoyed graphing their feelings on our daily chart and asked to continue doing so. They wrote in their journals about what makes them happy and sad, did a feelings cut and glue pattern, an Emoji Count, stamped an ABC pattern with foam faces, and played with feeling puppets. Mrs. Vargo did a fun paper plate activity about feelings with us. We worked on the letter K with our handwriting program using Play-Doh, iPads, chalk boards, and paint doobers. We also rotated through several science centers. We celebrated Mardi Gras by making crowns and wearing beads. We read books about kindness and talked about ways we can do random acts of kindness. During Religion we talked about Ash Wednesday and beginning the season of Lent.
