What We Are Learning

We had a fun week celebrating Dr. Seuss. We read books, sang songs, watched video clips, and did some cool crafts. We made a Cat in the Hat, Red fish, Blue Fish hands, and designed our own crazy socks. They especially liked the Fox in Socks puppet. The littles did a great job measuring their foot with pennies, paper clips, unifix cubes, and crayons, and wrote in their journals about Cat in the Hat. We had the most fun on Wacky Wednesday and made master pieces under the tables! We worked on the letter A with our handwriting program using Play-Doh, iPads, chalk boards, and paint doobers. We also rotated through several self-chosen centers. In Religion we compared salt and sugar and talked about how other foods taste and the role of water in our lives.
