News & Notes

Hello! We have conquered our second full week of school. Make sure to ask how your child's classes are going and encourage him/her to ask questions if help is needed. Midterms are coming up quickly.

I have sent a test email on Thursday. Please let me know if you have received it. We might need to update some email addresses in FACTS.

The seventh grade have been singing and serving like pros at mass. I am so proud of them.

Grandparents Day forms went home Wednesday. Please return those by September 10.

Have a great weekend!

Mrs. Lucas
